Put up a draft permitting executive Police officers in places like the Bangalore and Kyone Cities, where the necessity for going into [illegible] by where roads or foot-paths do not exist, to draw horse all.ce attached to appts when they keep bicycles.

SW 15/6/01 I think it would be preferable to pass a general order that a bicycle may be taken to entitle an officer to h.a. in all cases. But is it expedient to allow such officers to forget riding horses? Submitted to the Dewan.

From

THE SECRETARY TO THE GOVT. OF MYSORE,
GENERAL AND REVENUE DEPARTMENTS.

Sir,

I have the honor to request sanction to executive Police officers, such as Inspectors, Probationary Inspectors and the Jamedars working in my office and in places like the Bangalore and Mysore Cities, drawing the Horse allowance attached to their appointments when they keep Bicycles. — The horse allowance of Rs 15 and 8 respectively drawn by Inspectors and Jamedars is not really enough to maintain a horse in a costly place like Bangalore and Mysore and as the work of these officers does not necessitate their going much into country where no roads or or footpaths exist, the use of bicycles is quite as effective and more economical than keeping ponies. Moreover, practically the cycles cost more than the ponies and are found much more useful for rapid locomotion.

OFFICE OF THE

INSPECTOR GENERAL OF POLICE IN MYSORE.

No. 4437/480 Bangalore Dated 8th June 1901

Enc. one

From

THE INSPECTOR GENERAL OF POLICE IN MYSORE.

To

THE SECRETARY TO THE GOVT. OF MYSORE,
GENERAL AND REVENUE DEPARTMENTS.

Sir,

With reference to your docket No: 12117/1261 dated 12th March 1901, I have the honor to state that in the Presidency Town of Madras, no separate horse allowance is granted to the city Police, but horses are maintained by Government for the use of the Inspectors and others entitled to be supplied with horses and they are also granted

a Conveyance allowance of 15 Rs.

2. In the Moffusil, Horse allowance is granted but certificates are insisted upon only in the case of Division and Reserve Inspectors every month and Head Quarter, audit, Court and School Inspectors when they draw horse allowance, while Prosecuting Inspectors are allowed to draw the allowance without the certificate vide extracts of Rules 422 and 438(c)(9) enclosed. The reason for the exemption of Prosecuting Inspectors seems to be that they have only to attend Courts either at Head Quarters or in the Moffusil and are not required to keep riding horses to entitle them to their Horse allowance

3. No horse allowance is granted in the Central Provinces. In the Bombay Presidency

Presidency, the allowance is granted as a Travelling allowance and not as a horse allowance and the necessity for maintaining a horse or pony does not arise.

In the Bengal Manual there is no provision on horse allowance or certificates with reference to it, probably because they have a separate mounted Police.

4. It will thus be seen that no useful information can be expected from a reference to Madras or other Provinces. The Inspectors and other officers under discussion may be placed on a par with Prosecuting Inspectors in the Madras Presidency and excused excused from producing certificates of having maintained horses or ponies to entitle them to Horse allowance.

I have the honor to be,
Sir,
Your most Obedient Servant,

G. Hemming Lt
for Inspector General of Police

Enclosure 53.

Extract from the Madras Police order Book.

Rule 422. Horse allowance. Inspectors are entitled to a monthly horse allowance of Rs 15/- which is drawn like salary all the year round and in addition to any other travelling allowance admissible under the Regulations.

It is, however, inadmissible during joining time, or during leave of any description, except privilege leave during which it may be drawn, provided it is not claimed by the locum tenens,

× × × ×

Rule 438 (c)(9). Division and Reserve Inspectors

Inspectors will certify on pay bills — that they have kept a horse or pony during the whole month.
Head Quarter, Audit, and Court and School Inspectors should furnish the certificate when — they draw horse allowance. — Prosecuting Inspectors may — draw the allowance without the certificate.
